

2009 LBVCR International Concours Award Winners

On Saturday 31 October 2009 attention turned to the LBVCR International Concours in London's Regent Street. 128 Veteran Cars were on display in Central London and once again over 200,000 visitors were able to get a very close look at some of the rarest vehicles in the world. The cars on display were also competing for several prizes and the awards went to the following –

Concours d'élégance, sponsored by Turtle Wax

152 1902 Panhard et Levassor Rear-entrance Tonneau Mr John Lawson (GB)

Concours d'équipe

273 1903 Panhard et Levassor Tonneau Mr Malcolm, Miss Emma, Miss Elizabeth Bishop (GB)

Most Historic Veteran Car

95 1901 De Dion Bouton Vis-à-vis Mr James Gresham (GB)

Most Original / Unrestored Veteran Car

625 De Dietrich Vis-à-vis Mr Stephan Musfield (CH)

Judges Special Award

328 1902 Maxim Rear-entrance Tonneau Mr Ian Strang (GBG)

The Spectators Special Award

614 Petigars Prat Carrabin Mr Marco Fusco (D)

Best Belgian Manufactured Vehicle

79 Nagant-Gobron Brillie Double Phaeton Mr Philippe Vercruyse (B)

